

Borrowing & Lending

A short review based on Principles under Scrutiny by Larry Burkett

Should you ever co-sign a loan for someone near and dear to you, like Aunt Matilda or Brother Cody?

When is it WRONG to borrow money?

Is it ever okay, or necessary to borrow money?

What should be the mindset of paying off debt? Describe someone who is in the process of paying off debt? What would their lifestyle, spending habits be?

Should a Christian loan money to others? When? Give Scriptural reference.

Why is it better to give than to lend? What would be an alternative to both lending or giving to help someone out?

Give three Scriptures on borrowing and lending?
